With the initiation of the Human Values and Ethics Committee PUC, a one-day Workshop on Administrative Reforms, Ethics & Work Environment for non-teaching staff of Pachhunga University College was organized on 10th January, 2025. This program was organized at the Seminar Hall and made mandatory for all non-teaching staff to attend.

The program was divided into two (2) Sessions, Morning and Afternoon, with a duration of 3 hours each.

The first session was led by Ms. Golda Dell Zohmangaihi, who covered areas concerning the importance of building soft skills, mutual respect, a sense of inclusivity, leadership, integrity, and other work values and ethics. She also talks about different etiquette and manners required for maintaining peaceful co-working relationships. There were two types of self-assessment tests during this session. The participants were attentive and enjoyed the activities.

After lunch break, the second session commences. During this session, Mr. Malsawmtluanga, Assistant Registrar, MZU covered different Service matters and Related Issues. He started the session with a discussion on different CSS(Conduct) Rules, 1964. There was a presentation on the various components of the present salary. The majority of the time was spent on interaction and Q&A, where the different concerns of the participants were addressed. It was indeed a successful session.
