

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

"A special lecture in Professional Prospects in Psychology" by Mrs Rebecca Lalbiaksangi on 28th July, 2015

A special lecture on "Professional Prospects in Psychology" was organised with the resource person as Mrs Rebecca Lalbiaksangi, she has a Masters degree in Psychology and is working in Penrhys, Wales. As many as 100 participants comprising the teachers and students participated in this lecture. The programme was chaired by the Head of Department Dr. Rinpari Ralte. It started with a welcome speech from the Head of Department. Mrs. Rebecca is a Partner In Mission through the Council for world Mission (CWM) and she comes from the Presbyterian Church of India – Mizoram Synod. Mrs Rebecca and her husband Miara, a skilled lawyer, in Madagascar both serves as a volunteer in Penrhys for the Church there. The main aim of this special lecture is to know the importance and outcomes that can come with studying psychology. The important applications and usefulness of the knowledge of the subject which is wide and varied was talked about by the resource person. The scope of psychology in the different areas of professional work was explained. After the lecture question and answer round was held and several students asked questions which were answered by the resource person. A vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Lalropuii at the end of the programme.

Sd/-
(Dr. Rinpari Ralte)
Head

Sd/-
(Dr. Lalropuii)
IQAC In-Charge