

REPORT ON RUBY JUBILEE

The Ruby Jubilee celebration of the Department of Sociology at Pachhunga University College (PUC) on July 28th, 2022, was an extraordinary event that brought together students, faculty, and alumni to commemorate a significant milestone in the department history.

The day began with a sense of enthusiasm and purpose as we gathered at the main square of PUC for a special tree plantation ceremony. Ten saplings of boxwood trees were carefully planted, symbolizing growth, sustainability and our commitment to the environment. It was an honour to have our esteemed principal, Prof. H. Lalthanzara, grace the occasion with his presence.

After the tree plantation, we moved to our classroom, which was simply beautifully decorated to reflect the festive spirit of the Ruby Jubilee. The atmosphere was filled with excitement and anticipation as we prepared to celebrate the department's achievements and milestones.

The celebration kicked off with the cake cutting of a magnificent anniversary cake, symbolizing the 40 years of excellence and progress that the Department of Sociology has achieved. The cake cutting ceremony was a joyous moment, signifying unity and togetherness among the students and faculty.

As a token of appreciation, the students presented a bouquet and gifts to express their gratitude to the department. It was heartwarming to witness the student's thoughtfulness and creativity in selecting the gifts that reflected their deep appreciation for the guidance and support they received throughout their academic journey.

The faculty members also took the opportunity to present their own gifts, acknowledging the hard work and dedication of the students. This gesture further strengthened the bond between the students and faculty, fostering a sense of camaraderie and mutual respect.

One of the highlights of the event was the enlightening speech delivered by our esteemed Head of Department (HOD). The HOD took us on a captivating journey through the department's history, sharing anecdotes and stories that showcased the department's evolution.

and growth. It was inspiring to learn about the pioneering efforts that led to the establishment of the first sociology department in Mizoram and how it has evolved into a renowned institution of learning.

The speech not only highlighted the department's academic achievements but also emphasized the significant contributions made by the faculty and students in addressing social issues and bringing about positive change in the society. It served as a reminder of the department's mission to produce socially conscious individuals who can contribute meaningfully to the betterment of our community.

Throughout the celebration, there was palpable sense of joy and pride in the air. The Ruby Jubilee celebration of the Department of Sociology at Pachhunga University College was truly a memorable event, filled with joy, gratitude and a sense of accomplishment. It served as a reminder of the department's rich history, its commitment to excellence and the strong bond between students and faculty. As we look towards the future, we carry with us the lessons learned, the friendships forged, and the determination to make a positive impact on society.
