ENTREPRENEURSHIP KNOWLEDGE CELL
REPORT (JULY-DECEMBER, 2020)

- Due to the Covid19 pandemic, educational institutions continued to be closed. As such, it was not possible to organise hands-on training programs.
- However, Entrepreneurship Knowledge Cell, PUC organised Webinar on Entrepreneurship Awareness with a theme ‘Entrepreneurship at the time of Pandemic: Challenges and Prospects’ on 12 November, 2020 at 7:30 pm.
- Mr. Francis Lalmalsawma Sailo, Winner of Mizoram Kailawn B-Plan Contest, 2019, 1st Prize Winner of Startup India Mizoram Yatra (Innovation in Agriculture) was invited to be the Resource Person.
- It was open to all the students of PUC as well as anyone interested in the subject.
- It was attended by about 200 participants.
- The Resource Person discussed about his personal experience as an entrepreneur, the opportunities for emerging entrepreneurs with special focus on the current situation. He pointed out practical ways which could be followed by the participants.
- The session had a time for Q & A. The audience participated enthusiastically
