

REPORT OF THE SUO National Cadet Corps ARMY

R. Lalrinfela, SUO

He showered upon us from the beginning and throughout the session. It is indeed an honour and a privilege for me to present a brief report of the activities and achievements of Pachhunga University College National Cadet Corps (NCC).

We the Cadets of PUC feel profoundly blessed to have the comradeship of a dedicated Associate NCC Officer (ANO) Lt. Saitluanga Sailo, HOD, Dept of Geology, Care Taker Officer (CTO) Dr. Rohmingmawii, Dept. of History and Sir David Zothansanga, HOD, Dept of Public Administration, their guidance and advice have always been a great source of motivation for us.

And my deepest appreciation to all of my 17 Enrollment comrades and my juniors, without their involvement all of our activities and achievements would not have been accomplished.

3. Republic Day Camp 2020.
Republic Day Camp (RDC) is one of the highest camps a Cadet could attend. Sgt. Samuel PC Lalhriatpuia, IV Semester Chemistry and Sgt. Vanlalchhanhimi IV Semester Zoology were selected to represent the unit. Three Cadets were selected from Mizoram and we are really grateful to have acquired two of those. They participated in cultural, NIAP, PMP Rally to represent NCC North Eastern Region. The NER Directorate was declared champion of the RDC among all the 17 Directorates.

It was truly a glorious chapter that unfolded in the pages of history as the Cadet took the limelight in the RDC by bagging trophies in the PM Rally, Guard of Honour, Rajpat, Flag Area, Cultural programme and National Integration Awareness Programme.

4. 71st Republic Day was celebrated on 26 January, 2020.
Pachhunga University College created a beautiful milestone by bagging the 1st prize amongst the unarmed contingent.
5. Army Attachment Camp, Agartala
Cpl. Ramdinmawia II Semester, Dept of Zoology was selected to attend AAC Agartala at 31 Field Regiment from 6th - 20th January, 2020.
6. B Certificate examination
Certificate examination was conducted on 14th March, 2020 at Govt. Aizawl College, Sikulpuikawn.
7. Combine Annual Training Camp
Combine Annual Training Camp was held under the command of Col Gurpreet Singh, Sena Medal, at Tanhril during the period of 29th February 2020- 9th March, 2020.

To conclude my report, my sincere gratitude goes to my fellow Senior Under Officer, Under Officers and all the cadets for their untiring support and encouragement throughout the whole session. It is the purely their co-operation and dedication that able the PUC NCC to continue to follow the footstep of progress and development. Long Live PUC NCC, Jai Hind.
