ABOUT SEMINAR

India is known for its diverse castes, cultures, ethnic identities, and different religions. Indian society is undergoing rapid transformations in the era of globalization. However, some groups in society still face challenges like isolation, discrimination, and exclusion in different walks of social life. The international seminar, "Voices Unbound: Perspectives on Social Sciences and Beyond" explores different issues in the context of India. This seminar will provide a platform for different academic fields, such as sociology, anthropology, political science, public administration, economics, history, and cultural studies, and Multidisciplinary studies. It goes beyond the usual academic boundaries to understand the complex issues in Indian society. The aim is to get a better, and more detailed understanding of society by looking at things from different perspectives.
