

Dr. K. Vanlaldinpuia, Programme Officer, NSS, PUC Unit, attended the NSS North East Convention

Dr. K. Vanlaldinpuia, Programme Officer, NSS, PUC Unit, attended the NSS North East Convention 2024, which was held at IIT Guwahati from September 28th to 30th, 2024. He was nominated by the State NSS Officer of Mizoram NSS Cell, along with four other Mizoram NSS POs, to represent the state in the event organised by the NSS Cell of IIT Guwahati. The programme was designed to facilitate the exchange of success stories in community services and strategic planning for future activities, to strengthen partnerships among NSS Units across North-east India, and to empower communities in the North-east through innovative solutions and sustainable development initiatives, all of which could lead to a unified approach to addressing regional challenges and achieving NSS's goals and vision. Currently, there are more than 2400 program officers across the different states of North-East India, and 120 POs were invited to take part in the event. The program includes exchanging success stories and new ideas, presentations by different experts, yoga sessions, cultural activities, and hiking.

Dr. K. Vanlaldinpuia
Programme Officer, NSS
Pachhunga University College
Aizawl : Mizoram

Signature of Programme Officer with seal
Programme Officer
NSS Unit, Pachhunga University College