

Activity 2

Activity: National Seminar on ‘Cultural Heritage of Mizoram’

Date and Time: 21-22 March, 2019

Organisedby: Dept. of History, PUC in collaboration with Indira GandhiRashtriya Manav Sangrahalay (IGRMS), Bhopal.

- A National Seminar on ‘Cultural Heritage of Mizoram’ in collaboration with Indira GandhiRashtriya Manav Sangrahalay (IGRMS), Bhopal was organised by the department during 21-22 March 2019.
- Scholars from various Universities participated and presented papers.
- Prof. Sarit K. Chaudhury, Director, IGRMS, Prof. Sajal Nag from Assam University, Silchar, Prof. J. L. Dawar, Delhi, Dr. Joan Heath, Divine Intervention School and Prof. P. Thirumal, University of Hyderabad were among the distinguished participants.
- There were 76 participants in the Seminar.
- All the faculty members in History department, PUC participated and presented a paper (except HoD).
- Apart from the academic exercise, there was a Culture Evening on the first day of the Seminar where cultural troops from Mizoram and Assam showed beautiful performances.
- The papers in the Seminar are to be published by Manohar books.

