

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH: PACHHUNGA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
“Meet the Author” Session with Malsawmi Jacob, author of the novel “Zorami”:

On 24th March, 2017, the Department held a “Meet the Author” session with Malsawmi Jacob, author of the novel “Zorami”. The novel is written in English and is set against the backdrop of Mizoram’s turbulent years during its fight for independence. The Head, Dr. Lalbiaksangi Chawngthu chaired the session and after the introduction of the author, a question and answer round was held. The entire session proved to be very motivational and enlightening for the students. Since “Zorami” deals with an event that is such an immense part of the history of Mizoram, the students were eager to listen to the author talk about her writing process. This session piqued the interest of the audience into being aware of their history – a history which was lived by their parents and grandparents.
