

Department of Sociology: Pachhunga University College

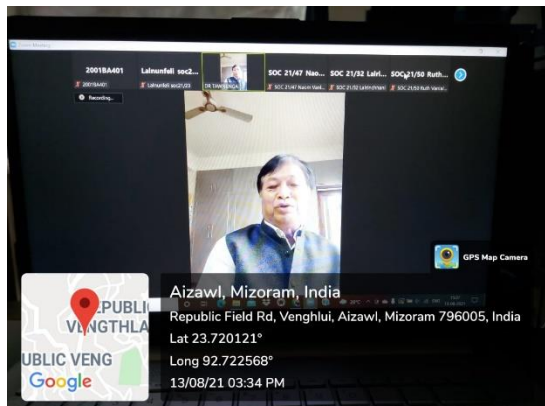

Report on 63rd Foundation Day Special Address

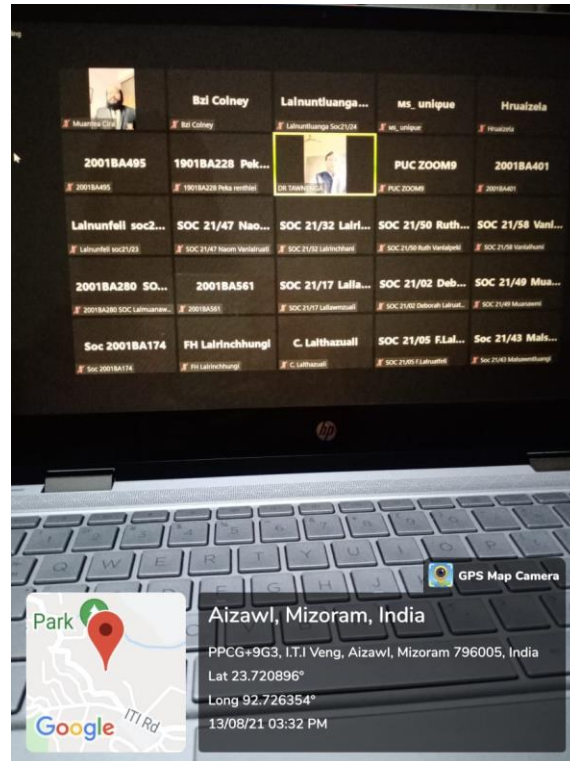

As requested by Prof. Lalthanzara, Principal of Pachhunga University College to observe the 63rd Foundation Day of the College by respective departments of the College, the department of Sociology also organized a special online programme to commemorate the 63rd Foundation Day of Pachhunga University College.

The programme was scheduled as follows:

Date	: 13/08/2021
Time	: 3:00 pm
Chief Organizer	: Lalbiakzuali Colney
Host	: Lalhmingmawii
Introduction	: Lallungmuana, Head of Department
Special Address	: Dr. Tawnenga, Former principal, PUC
Vote of Thanks	: Dr. Laldinpuii Ralte
Attendance i/c	: PC Vanlalpeka

To mark the occasion, the department had invited former Principal, Dr. Tawnenga to address the event. Dr. Tawnenga consented to grace the occasion and spoke eloquently and enthrallingly on, “The spirit in the beginning that lingers on...”. In the speech, Sir had mentioned that, “PUC, the answer for the needy” was the central theme for the initiation of the College and this, he strongly advocated the reason for the continued blessings from Above”. Sir was also generous enough to offer admission fees for the next semester to three promising Sociology core students from each semester respectively. In this regard, he had requested the department faculty to sort out three promising students. The programme was attended by the present I, III and V semester Core students. The alumni as well as the parents of the I, III and V semester students were also invited to grace the occasion.

Dr. Laldinpuii Ralte
 (Dr. Laldinpuii Ralte)
 Dept. i/c, IQAC

(Lallungmuana)
 (Lallungmuana)
 Head of Department