“The Editor Speaks: Special Lecture by Prof. Margaret Ch. Zama”
hosted by the Department:

The Department held the programme, “The Editor Speaks: Special Lecture by Prof. Margaret Ch. Zama” on 14th October 2018 at the Golden Jubilee Hall, Pachhunga University College. The programme was chaired by Mr. Henry Lalmawizuala. Prof. Zama spoke extensively about translation of Mizo canonical texts into English, and the responsibilities of editorship, as well as the importance of fostering literature written by Mizos. A lively discussion was held afterwards.

Prof. Margaret Zama shared from her experience and it was a wonderful opportunity for the students to listen to someone who have had decades of experience in the field of translation and editing. The discussion that followed her talk was mostly concerned with questions from the students that ranged from her experience as an Editor and a teacher, to being one of the first female Head of Department and Registrar of Mizoram University. The talk was attended by 87 students from all three semesters.
